

Your non-binding Pledge Form

A gift in your Will would mean so much to horses who may need our help in the future. So whether you're considering this or not, please let us know your intentions below. Then pop this form in an envelope and return it to us (no stamp needed) at the address below. Thank you.

I'd like to consider leaving a gift to the Sanctuary in my Will.

Please send me an information pack.

I'd like to consider making an amendment to my existing Will.

Please send me an information pack.

I've already included a gift to the Sanctuary in my Will.

I'd rather not share my charitable plans.

Please be assured that there is no obligation, and that all information about charitable gifts and bequests will be held in the strictest confidence.

Please share your thoughts with us.

We all have our own reasons for leaving a gift in our Will. So if you're thinking about it, or you have already arranged it, please tell us why in the space below. It would mean so much to us – plus it's a great way for us to get to know you a little better!
