

Playschool Loan Terms and Conditions:

By rehoming a horse on our Playschool Loan you agree to the following terms and conditions:

- ✓ Agree to keep your loan horse up to date with all agreed veterinary, and other care as specified for your individual loan horse. This information is specified in your handover pack.
- ✓ Keep the Sanctuary up to date with any changes in the health, medication, care or management of your loan horse when requested.
- ✓ When your loan horse approaches maturity, discuss with the Sanctuary which is the best option for you and your loan horse in the future:
- ✓ Keep the horse as a companion, or train the horse for riding yourself, transferring onto our standard loan.
- ✓ Return the horse temporarily to the Sanctuary to begin ridden work, with a view to having the horse back afterwards (please note the Sanctuary would reassess if the horse was still a good match for you).
- ✓ Return the horse to us to begin ridden work and take another, young horse on Playschool Loan.
- ✓ Give your veterinary practice consent to discuss your loan horse's care and management directly with the Sanctuary. Ensure that any veterinary reports & test results are forwarded to the Sanctuary straight away.
- ✓ The Mare and Foal Sanctuary reserves the right to refuse reimbursement of any agreed costs associated with Playschool Loan if appointments are not carried out within the timescales specified by the Sanctuary.
- ✓ Invoices for all costs associated with Playschool Loan must be received by the Sanctuary's Equine Department within 60 days of invoice. The Sanctuary reserves the right to refuse reimbursement for invoices received after this period.

- ✓ If you are no longer able to keep your Playschool loan horse they must be returned to the Sanctuary accompanied by all remaining medications, equipment and any other items that have been purchased under the Playschool Loan agreement or provided by the Sanctuary specifically for the benefit of that equine.
- ✓ Items must be returned in serviceable condition, or a suitable replacement provided.
- ✓ The Mare and Foal Sanctuary reserves the right to amend the Playschool Loan Terms and Conditions at any time, dependent on the individual needs of the horse.
